Blessed Frederic Ozanam
The Society Founder 1813 -1853
"In my life I want to become better and do a little good."

185 years of Caring for the Poor

The SSVP is an international organisation of Catholic lay people, men and women, who practice Christianity by helping those in need on a person to person basis. Frederic Ozanam and some young friends founded the Society in Paris on 23 April 1833. The essence of the Society is personal service and commitment. The Society is named after St Vincent de Paul the Patron Saint of all Charities whose life was devoted to helping the underprivileged.

The Society came to Scotland a mere twelve years after its establishment in Paris. On the 25th May 1845, the first Scottish Conference met in Edinburgh, in the rooms of the Guild of St. Joseph,

The first Conferences in Paisley were St Mirin's Cathedral and St Mary's Greenock (1853). Today there are in total 33 Conferences, 270 members - 177 brothers and 93 sisters and many volunteers / helpers.

Worldwide, the Society has grown rapidly. From seven founder members in 1833, currently there are over 40,000 Conferences with in excess of 800,000 members.

The dream of Ozanam has been fulfilled: "I would like to embrace the world in a network of charity."
